Sermon Notes

Big idea: Because we are justified by faith alone in Christ alone, the church must live in gospel-consistent unity without division.

1. The Gospel Demands Consistency Between _____ and _____ (V. 11-13)
2. The Gospel Is Worth _____ Sin—Even in Leaders (V. 11, 14)
3. Justification by Faith Alone Makes All Believers _____ and Shapes How We _____ With One Another

Family discussion questions:

1. Why did Paul confront Peter publicly instead of privately? What does this teach us about when and how sin should be addressed?
2. What message did Peter send to the Gentile believers when he stopped eating with them? How can our actions sometimes say things we don't mean to say?
3. How did Peter's fear of people affect his obedience to the gospel? Can you think of times when fear of others has influenced your own decisions?
4. Why is it dangerous when our behavior doesn't match what we say we believe about salvation? How does that affect our witness to others?
5. What is one practical way our family can live out gospel unity this week —at church, school, work, or in our neighborhood?
