Family Discussion Questions:

1. What does Paul mean when he says the law was like a “prison” before faith came? How could something that restricts us actually protect us?
2. The Bible compares the law to a “guardian.” What role does a guardian play in someone’s life, and how is that similar to the role of God’s law?
3. The sermon says the law pointed people to their need for a Savior. Can you think of examples in life where rules or consequences show us that we need help or guidance?
4. Why is baptism important for Christians, and what does it symbolize according to the sermon?
5. Galatians 3:28 says there is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female in Christ. What does this teach us about how Christians should treat people who are different from them?
